

Qantas Ski Club, WASC 2010

Sunday 7th March to Friday 12th March 2010

2010 will see the Qantas Ski Club return to Austria for the World Airlines Ski Championships. Schladming is the venue for the 51st IASF WASC, and for those who have been before, you will know what a great event this is.

Schladming here we come!

<http://www.schladming-dachstein.at/en/winter>

The Schladming-Dachstein Region lies in north-west Styria, extending from the Dachstein Massif to the Grimming.

The 223 km of superbly groomed ski slopes are within quick, convenient reach via 109 modern cable and chair lifts – you are sure to find a hill that is destined to become your own personal favourite!

The most modern snowmaking equipment in Europe guarantees enjoyable skiing until well into our sun-drenched mountain springtime. The impressive Dachstein Glacier even makes it possible to ski on 365 days a year.

The four-mountain ski link connects the four largest Styrian skiing mountains. With about 167 km of slopes, Planai, Hochwurzen, Hauser Kaibling and Reiteralp rank among the top five destinations of the Alps.
